

- 10.00: Coffee, Registration and Networking at Senate House, University of London
- 10.30: Welcome and keynote introduction
- Welcome: Julian Robinson, Chair of HEDQF and Director of Estates, London School of Economics
 - Keynote Introduction: Professor Ricky Burdett CBE, Professor of Urban Studies and Director of LSE Cities and Urban Age, London School of Economics
- 11.10 Developing for the Future: The competitive environment in London. Future proposals for different universities:
- The University of London: Ghazwa Alwani-Starr, Director of Property & Facilities Management, UoL
 - Royal College of Arts in Battersea: Andrew Asbury, Director Buildings and Estates at the Royal College of Art
 - City University: Kevin Gibbons, Director – Property and Facilities, City University
 - University College London: Andrew Grainger, Director of UCL Estates
 - Questions and Answers
- 12.30 Lunch in the new Paul Webley Wing, SOAS, designed by Rock Townsend.
- 13.45 Developing for the Future: New university developments in the UK and Europe:
- The Central European University Budapest: Mark Grehan, Director, O'Donnell & Tuomey
 - The University of Bristol: Patrick Finch, Bursar and Director of Estates, University of Bristol
 - What does the Future Hold? Colin Blair MBE, Director - Estates and Facilities, University of Huddersfield
 - Questions and Answers
- 14.45 This House believes that the university learning experience is about the people not the space: a debate with current and future students organised by the educational charity Debatemate
- 15.45 Designing the University of 2040: An interactive session facilitated by Dr Chris Luebke, Arup Fellow and Global Director, Arup Global Foresight, Research + Innovation
- 17.30 Conclusions and Summing Up
- 18.00 onwards: Drinks reception in the Bartlett School of Architecture UCL, designed by Hawkins Brown with an introduction by Professor Bob Sheil, Director of the School of Architecture and Professor of Architecture and Design through Production, followed by tours of the building.
- 20.00 End

Conference Scribe: Suzi Winstanley, Partner, Penoyre & Prasad

Main Event Sponsors:

Joint Conference Sponsors

